

Podcast Personal Grading Rubric

5- Outstanding

4- Above Average

3- On the Right Track

2- Almost There

1- Focus for Improvement

Task	Grade	Why Did You Give Yourself This Grade?
Group Participation: Did you work well with others? Did you pull your weight and offer help when needed? Could others rely on you to do the best job necessary?
Planning: Did you put the time and energy needed for planning your podcast? Did you think out the specific details of your podcast?
Research for Podcast: Did you find out all of the information possible on your story? Did you leave no stone unturned? Did you use multiple, credible sources?
Script: Was your script well thought out? Did it include your specific research along with a story that appeals to human emotion? Did you edit your draft and have someone else edit your draft to make sure it as perfect as can be?
Effort in Recording: Did you take the time to make sure you were in a quiet location with no outside distractions? Did you speak slow and purposefully? Did you make multiple recordings so you had options?

Effort in Editing: Did you make every attempt possible to take out the unneeded sound clips? Did you add music, sounds and transitions to make a smoother listening experience?
--	--	--

Total Points: _____/30

Questions

Answer the following questions in complete sentences after providing as many specific details as possible. Put thought into your answers. Be honest with yourself and your effort in this project.

1. Two things I am most proud of throughout the creation of this podcast:

- a.
- b.

2. Two things I would do differently next time are:

- a.
- b.

3. What did you learn through planning, preparing and recording this podcast?