

CULTIVATING COMMUNITY RELATIONSHIPS:

Bridging the gap between libraries and high school career & technical education

PROJECT TEAM

DeAnna Anderson

Teen Specialist,
St. Louis Public Library

Tammie Busch

Assistant Professor
Catalog & Metadata
Librarian
SIU Edwardsville

Debra Casimere

Secondary Coordinator,
Charles Sumner
High School

Lora Del Rio

Associate Professor
Director of Research,
Teaching, & Learning
SIU Edwardsville

Jacob Del Rio

Assistant Professor
Electronic Resources
Librarian
SIU Edwardsville

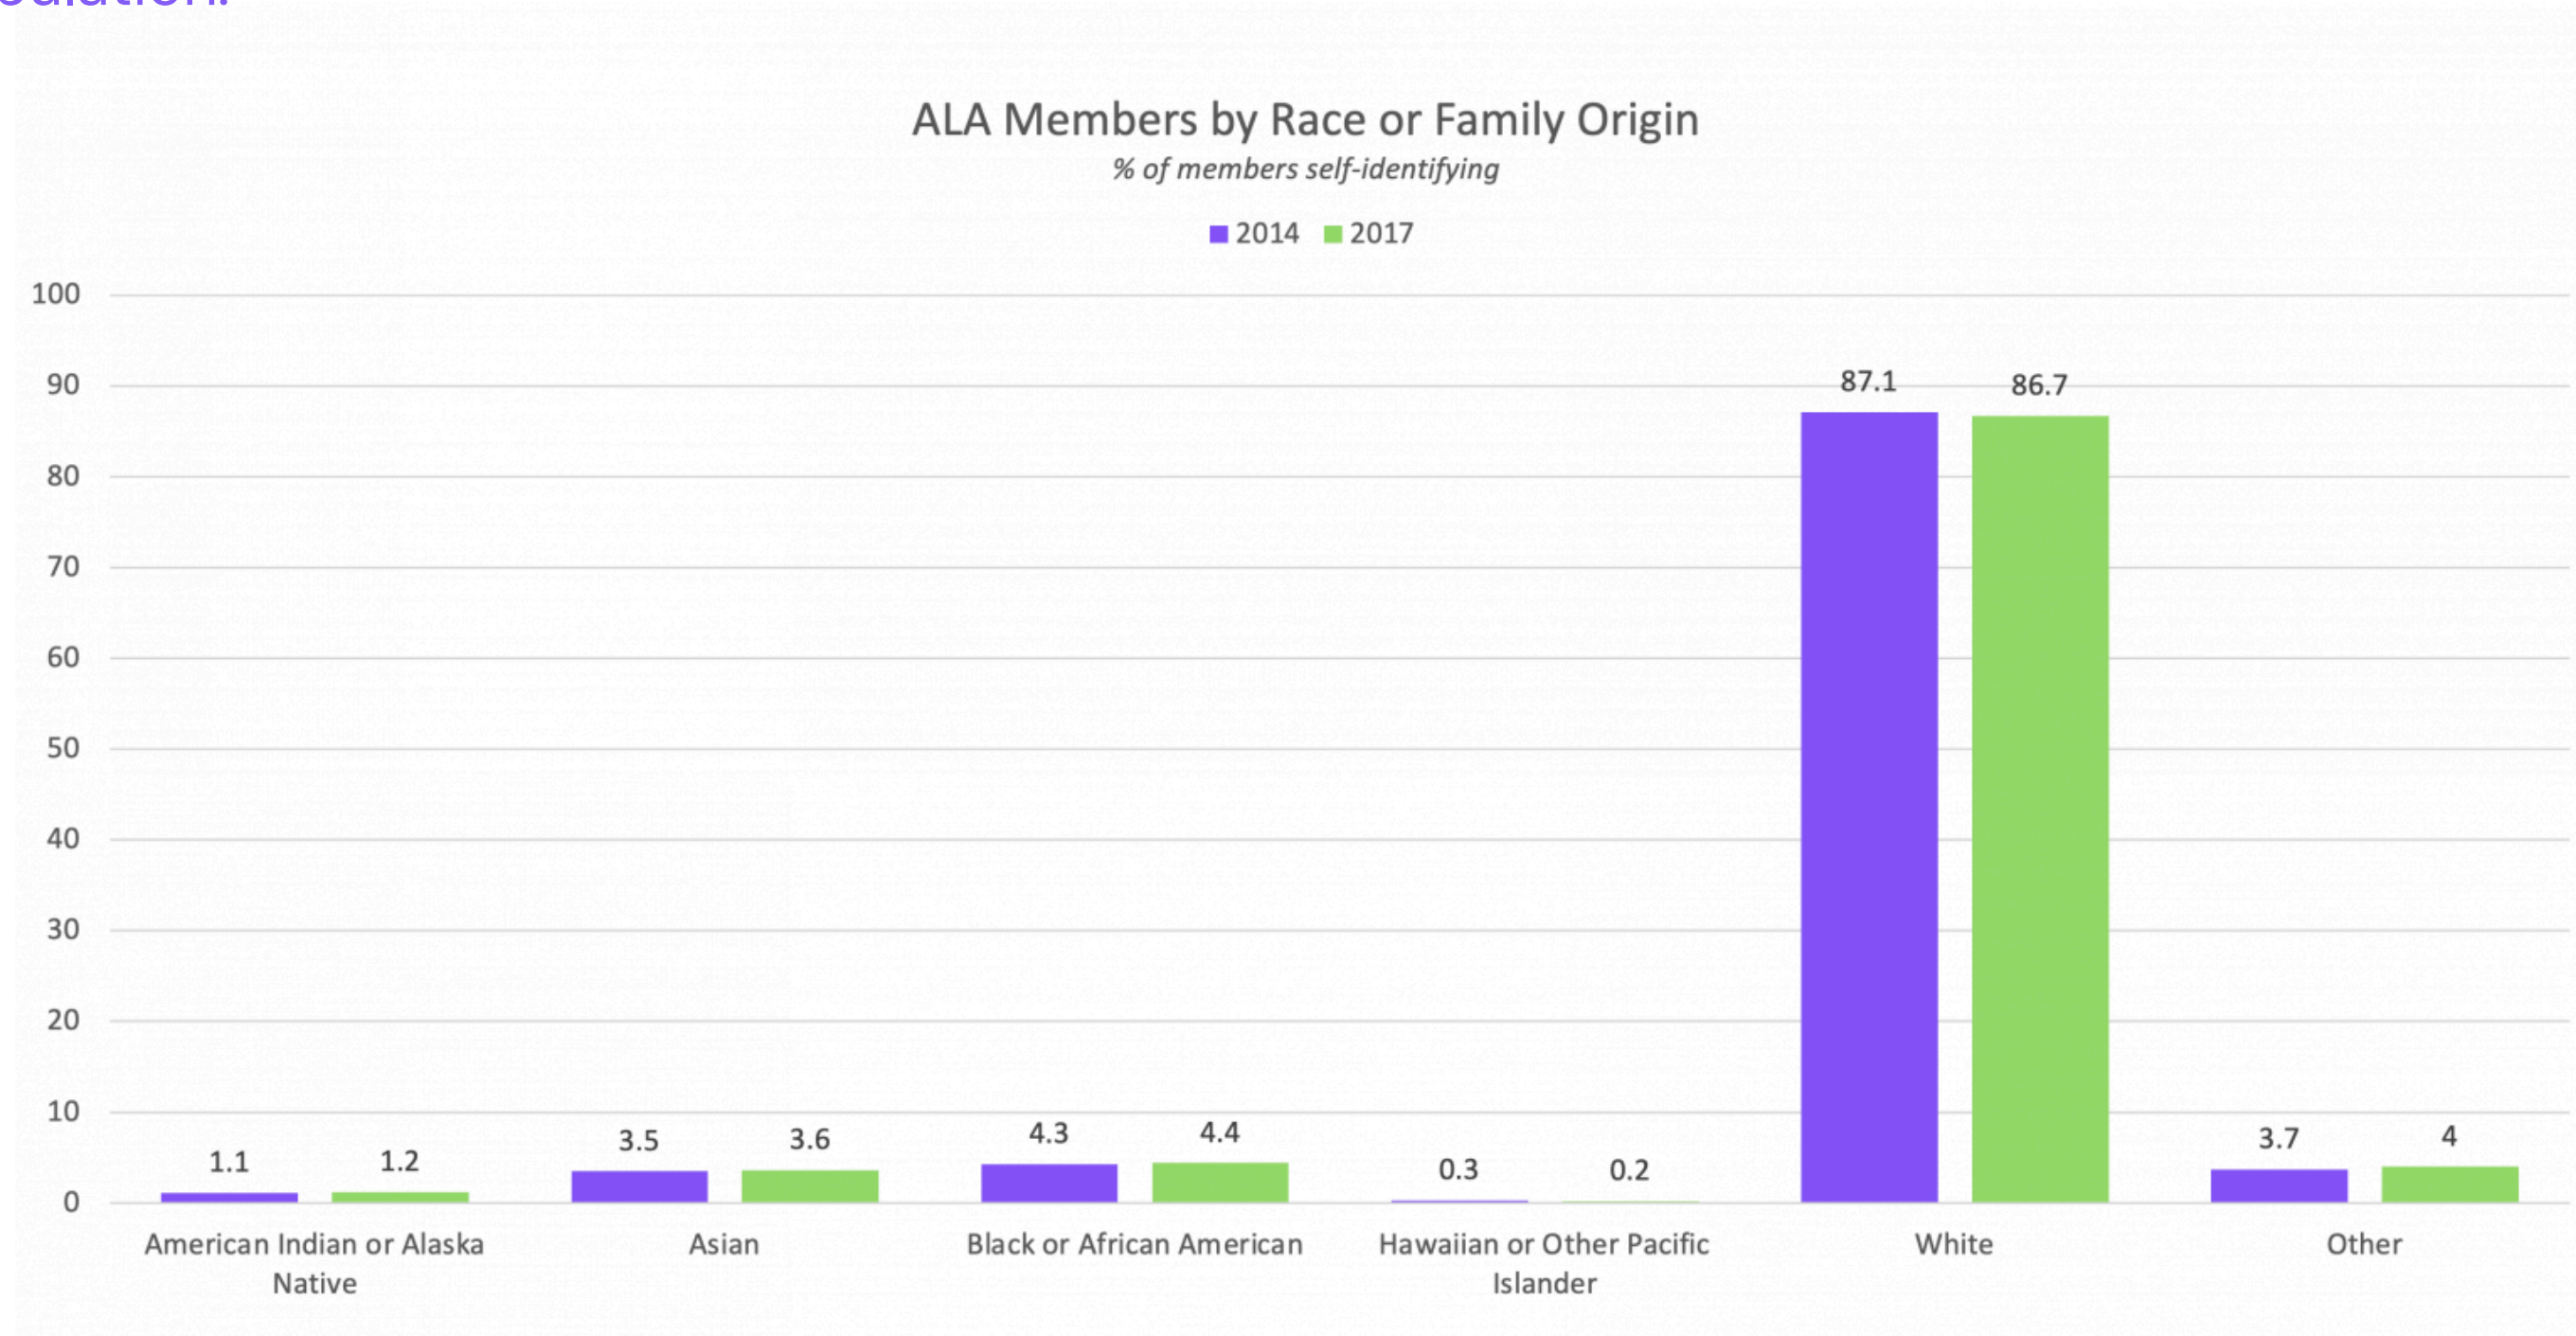

Elizabeth Kamper

Associate Professor
Information Literacy
Librarian
SIU Edwardsville

LACK OF DIVERSITY

The 2017 ALA racial demographic study showed that 86.1% of members surveyed identified as white, a number not keeping pace with the diversity in the U.S. population.

DIVERSE

RECRUIT

recruit cohorts of high school seniors from diverse and underrepresented backgrounds

LIBRARIANSHIP

PARTNER

partner with library/cultural organizations

CAREER

MENTOR

mentor cohort students & encourage them to pursue library careers

TRAINING &

CONFERENCE

travel with cohort students to library conferences

EDUCATION

TOOLKIT

develop & disseminate a toolkit to allow others to scale a similar program to their library setting

Career and Technical Education

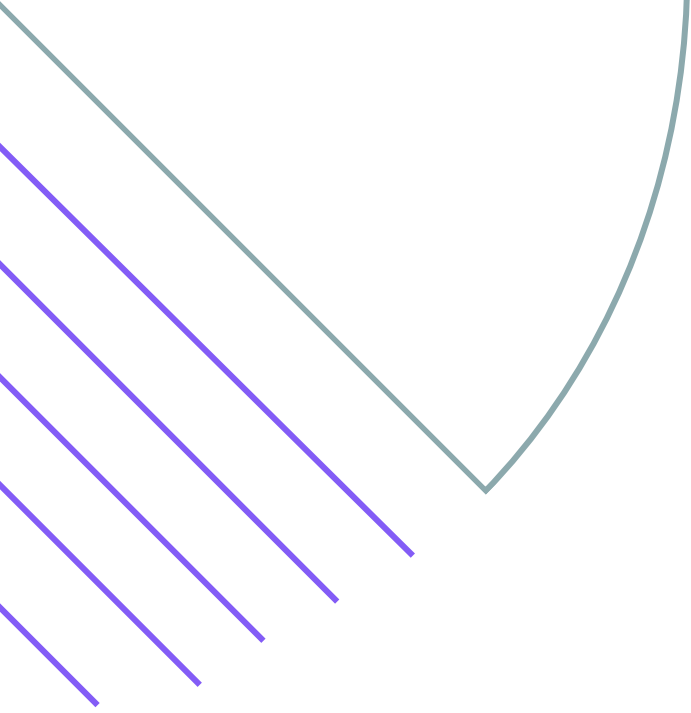

Workforce Pipeline Models

Building Successful, Cross-community Partnerships

Q&A

THANK YOU

<https://iris.siue.edu/dlcte/>