

how small am I?

i am a person in a room
on a level
in a building
on a street
in a city
in a county
in a state
in a region
in a country
on a continent
on a planet
in a solar system
in a galaxy
in THE universe

am i alone?

am i conscious?

are others conscious?

is it in the same way as me?

are there others out there?

do they think they are alone?

do they know about me?

am i so small?
