

Respectful friends
are the best friends!

Sometimes, it may be harder for some of your friends to do things that are easy for you

But, we should never call our friends with different abilities names like the "R-word", "dumb", or "crippled".

How do words like
the "R-
word", "dumb", and
"crippled" make our friends feel?

SAD

LONELY

JUDGED

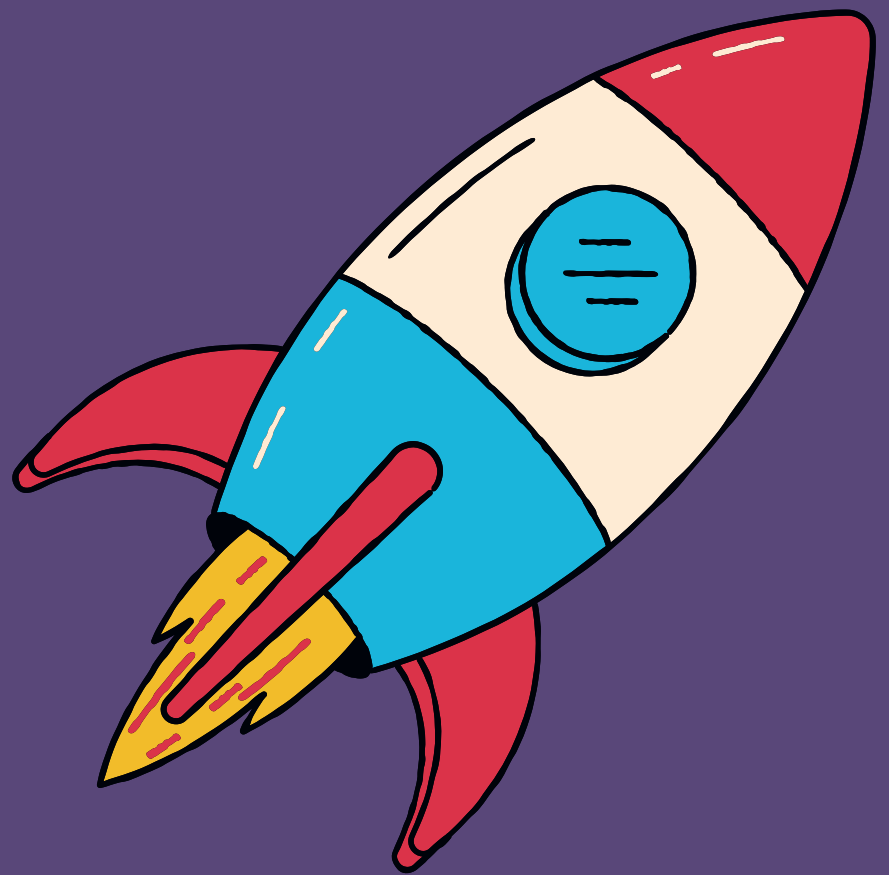

What can we say
to be kind and respectful to our friends with different abilities?

"He is my friend
who uses a
wheelchair"

"I have a friend
who has a disability"

When we show all of our friends
respect...

WE CAN

SOAR!
