Group members: _____

Project:

What's the goal and/or argument of the site?

What is it responding to?

What kinds of content are most important or central on the site?

Who contributed to the project? What kinds of roles do they have on the project? What kinds of backgrounds or jobs do they have outside the project?

Who is the audience? How does the project team speak to that audience? What considerations have they taken to reach that audience?

What does the project do well?

What areas do you think could be stronger?

Is the site usable and easy to navigate?

Other thoughts or comments: