The Digital Humanities and Social Sciences Minor

Note: Any of the listed courses already counted towards a student's major cannot be applied to this minor.

Required courses (6 credit hours)
_____ HUM230: Introduction to Digital Humanities
_____ IRIS 495: Digital Humanities and Social Sciences Internship.

Elective courses (12 credit hours)
Digital Humanities and Social Sciences minors should choose 4 electives that are relevant to their majors and future plans. The following courses are pre-approved as electives. Additional courses, special topics, and/or independent studies relevant to the digital humanities and social sciences may be included as determined in consultation with the Director of the Digital Humanities and Social Sciences Program.

English
_____ ENG 482: Technology and Literature
_____ ENG 412: Digital Literacies
_____ ENG 334: Scientific Writing
_____ ENG 491: Technical and Business Writing

Geography
_____ GEOG 320: Cartography
_____ GEOG 402: Cultural Landscape
_____ GEOG 418 Geographic Information Systems (GIS)
_____ GEOG 420 Interactive and Animated Cartography

History
_____ HIST471 Community-Engaged Digital History

Interdisciplinary Studies
_____ IS 375 Technology and Public Policy
_____ IS 376 Information Technology and Society
_____ IS 386 Cyberarts: Exploring Fine Arts and Computer Technology

Mass Communications
_____ MC 202 Writing for the Media
_____ MC 342 Digital Imagery
_____ MC 452 New Media and Technology
_____ MC 440 Visual Media Analysis

Computer Management and Information Systems
_____ CMIS 108 Computer Concepts and Applications

Computer Science
_____ CS140 Introduction to Computing I
_____ CS150 Introduction to Computing II
_____ CS234 Database and Web System Development

Applied Communication Studies
_____ ACS431 Public Relations Visual Communication
_____ ACS432 Social Media for Public Relations